RETIREMENT OF TROOPER JAMES ANDERSON

Colonel Bryan Klipfel, superintendent of the North Dakota Highway Patrol, announces the retirement of Trooper James Anderson

Effective December 31, 2005, Trooper James Anderson retired from the North Dakota Highway Patrol after almost 26 years of service with the North Dakota Highway Patrol and the North Dakota Department of Transportation. Trooper Anderson began his career in 1980 with the Truck Regulatory Division of the NDDOT enforcing motor carrier regulations. He was assigned to the Bowman Weigh/Inspection Station as a motor carrier inspector and in 1982 as a truck compliance agent in Bowman. In July 1983, the Truck Regulatory Division merged with the North Dakota Highway Patrol and Trooper Anderson was stationed in Dickinson and Valley City. In 1987, he was again assigned to the Dickinson District. In 2003, Trooper Anderson was reassigned to the Motor Carrier Safety Assistance Program (MCSAP) stationed in Dickinson where he served until his retirement.

Upon his retirement, Trooper Anderson was awarded the North Dakota Highway Patrol Meritorious Service Medal for serving with merit and distinction.
